

The Last Green Valley invites you!

What: Historical Collaboration in The Last Green Valley

When: Wednesday, August 2, 2017 from 4 - 6 p.m.
(You are welcome earlier if it is easier to come straight from work)

Where: Lebanon Historical Society Museum & Visitor Center, 856 Trumbull Highway, Lebanon CT. (preview our tour at the Museum's website <http://historyoflebanon.org>)

More!

Who: All History Lovers! Historical societies, librarians, or other like-minded organizations & individuals that focus on preserving, enjoying and passing on our history.

Topic: This visit will include the museum's "How They Learned" exhibit, which was installed in 2016 and will on display until early 2018. Tour the Pastor's Library and Beaumont House for those who have yet not seen these buildings, or if you'd like to revisit. The replica Hearse House with their antique hearse parked inside will be open, too! Possible bonuses: A new farming exhibit in the Carriage Shed is in the works now, and if it is ready, you will see it! If time allows, tour the archives and collections storage.

Fun fact: Our host & Museum Director, Donna Baron is on TLGV's Board of Directors.

Why: Rich history exists in our National Heritage Corridor. Stories beg to be passed on, places need to be visited, and we can share our skills & talents!

Join us for the 3rd Historical Collaboration in The Last Green Valley in 2017!
...2 years and growing STRONG!

THE GOAL?

To offer a quarterly event, featuring an exciting & informative historical topic each session, presented by each of you! Show off your specialty.

Instead of working alone & duplicating efforts, let's pitch in to work & learn together!

After all, HISTORY is OUR STORY.
Together we care for it, enjoy it and pass it on.
Join the collaboration to conserve our history in the National Heritage Corridor.
