

Revolutionize Your Students

Exclusively for Homeschooled Students Field Trip

History comes alive at the Lebanon Historical Society! Homeschooled youth are invited to explore the lives of men enlisted in the Revolutionary War militia, the family of a Revolutionary War veteran and the daughter of an officer and politician. Prominent and ordinary people come to life through stories and hands on activities. Students will explore the Lebanon Historical Society Museum, the Beaumont family farmhouse and the Jonathan Trumbull Jr House as they investigate life in Revolutionary War era Lebanon.

Register your children for this fun and engaging experience today as space is limited and this program fills up fast. Registration can be done quickly and easily either through our website or by stopping in during open hours Wed-Sat 12-4. A small fee of only $10 per child with additional children only $8 each or FREE to those who have a current family membership with us here at the Lebanon Historical Society. We look forward to meeting you to share in Lebanon's rich history.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION for Homeschoolers Field Trip

IMPORTANT INFORMATION PLEASE RETAIN FOR YOUR USE

Thank you for choosing an exciting day of History for your homeschooled students!

Date: Friday October 13th 2023 Time: 12:00pm—3:15pm starting promptly at noon

Locations: To begin the day, please come inside to check in your students at the First Congregational Church of Lebanon located at 588 Exeter Rd, Lebanon, CT 06249. Groups will travel by foot to several historic locations around the Green: The Lebanon Historical Society Museum & Visitor's Center, the Beaumont House and the Jonathan Trumbull Jr. House. Please ensure your students have good walking shoes, sunscreen applied prior to the day and have eaten as there will not be a meal or snack time. They are welcome to carry a water bottle to stay hydrated. Please ensure the group chaperones are aware of any allergies and if an epi-pen is required that your student carries it with them.

If we need to be informed of any additional information about your students not listed on the registration form please email community@historyoflebanon.org prior to Oct 13th.

Pickup of students will occur at the Lebanon Historical Society. Parking is available at the Town Public Parking lot right next door. Students will only be released to a parent listed on the form or to an alternate pickup if confirmed thru email prior to field trip. Please bring your photo ID.

Please consider joining our membership! We are always looking for new family memberships and wonderful volunteers who share our love of history! If interested simply ask! Or go to www.historyoflebanon.org

We do have a small gift shop and accept donations to continue to share in Lebanon's Rich History!
