Join in the fun as we host The Last Green
Valley's Mars Watch Party Event

Bundle up for outdoor viewing of the planets Venus, Saturn and Neptune beginning at 5pm. Mars rises around 7:30pm. There will be plenty of other cool things to observe through the telescopes including, Jupiter, Uranus, and lots of deep sky objects. Telescopes provided by The Last Green Valley.

Anyone wanting help with their own telescope is invited to come early.

Warm up inside the museum with hot chocolate and treats!

This FREE event is open to the public

Rain/snow date is  January 25
