The Lebanon Historical Society presents

Changes in Lebanon's Landscape
What would Thoreau think?

Professor, author, scientist and journalist, Robert M. Thorson, will give a talk on the transformation of local landscape during the colonial era.

As a fundraiser for the Lebanon Historical Society, copies of Robert Thorson's books will be available for purchase and signing, along with a pamphlet reprint of his published work on Lebanon.

This program is free to members of the Historical Society and $2 for non-members
